

Monty White Expands to Indian Law

It is with great pleasure that Monty White LLP announces the addition of Thomas Eagle Weathers to the firm. Tom is Aleut and an enrolled member of the Qawalangin Tribe of Unalaska in Alaska. He practices Indian law and related litigation.

Tom is past-president of the National Native American Bar Association and is admitted to practice in California, Alaska, and Washington as well as several federal and tribal courts. He also serves as a part-time appellate judge for various tribes including the Mashantucket Pequot, the San Juan Southern Paiute, and the Puyallup.

Tom will be “Of Counsel” in full time residence in the San Rafael office.

MWLLP is a 14 attorney firm with offices in San Rafael, Santa Rosa and Palm Desert. For more information see www.montywhitelaw.com
